It should be explained to Lieutenant Neill that of the alternatives mentioned in the enclosed letter, only the first is open to him, since the Northern Nigeria pensions regulations contain no provision under which the arrangement proposed in the second alternative could be carried out. 30 OCT. 1909

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 18th August, 26934/1909, I am directed to inform you that Lieut. M. Neill, at the time when his services were first lent to the Colonial Office, had earned a pension of £54 a year only, whereas he is now entitled to retire on one of £140 a year. There are objections on military grounds (retirement or resignation with retrospective effect not being permitted) to the suggestion in the last paragraph of your letter under reply, which ~~will~~ would involve his resignation of the Indian service with effect from a date nine years ago; but apart from these it seems seems improbable that Lt.Neill would be willing to agree to a condition which involves the sacrifice of the larger pension to which he has become entitled in the interval.

I am to suggest the following alternative courses, to either of which this Office would be prepared to assent:-

1. Lt. Neill might be permitted to retire from the Indian service on a pension of £140 a year from the date on which he applies for permission to do so, provided the date of retirement is not earlier than the date of his application. In this case the contribution on account of Indian pension would be levied up to the date of his retirement retirement, and presumably his subsequent service alone would count as service for pension from Colonial funds. His widow, if married before his retirement, and children, if any, would not forfeit their title to pension under Indian regulations.

2. His service counting for Indian pension (dating from 6th March 1885) together with his Colonial service might be allowed to count as service for pension under Colonial regulations. Indian revenues would contribute toward such pension, if granted, a portion equivalent to $\frac{x}{60}$ths of his final Indian salary,* where to Colonial service, in which case any contributions towards Indian pension which may have been paid would be refunded, or

(B) of his permanent transfer to Colonial service. In this case the Indian contribution towards his final pension would be based on his assumed pay at the date of his permanent transfer.

In cases 2 (A) or 2 (B) Lieut. Neill would be required to resign the Indian service and to forgo the Indian pension which he has earned and the contingent pensions for which his family, if any, may be eligible under Indian rules.

In such transfers two points have to be kept in view:- the effect on the officers pensionary claims and the incidence as between Indian and other revenues of the pension he eventually gets. So long as he is only "lent" a contribution is paid by him, or on his behalf, to cover the cost of the pension which he may earn under Indian rules while serving another Government.

Honorary Lieutenant M.Neill, Indian Supply and Transport Corps, hasbeen serving in Northern Nigeria since 1900. He wishes to be transferred permanently to Nigerian service and the Colonial Office have raised the question of the conditions of his transfer. He had earned a small pension under Indian rules when he was first lent and has now qualifiedfor a higherone. A draft is submitted offering alternative conditions. A third course, that numbered (3) in the Assistant Financial Secretary's note of the 30th August (M.10854), is not mentioned in the draft because it would prolong the existing state of affairs in which Lt. Neill is subject to two sets of regulations.

Mr. Wakeman, an Assistant Surgeon of the Indian Subordinate Medical Department is the Legation surgeon in Abyssinia. The Foreign Office not only want him transferred permanently to their service but they recommend him strongly for for special promotion to the rank of honorary Lieutenant ; they are willing to bear the cost of the promotion.

Mr. Wakeman is not yet entitled to any pension under Indian rules.

Referred to The Financial Secretary The 20th August 1909.

For any remarks which he may desire to offer on the annexed letter, especially as regards the proposals in para. 3.

Lieut Michael Neill enlisted on the 1st March 1875 and was placed on the Unattached List from 6th March 1885. He embarked from Bombay en route for his appointment in Northern Nigeria on the 22nd December 1900. At that time he might have retired on a pension of £ 54 a year. At the present time he is eligible for an Indian pension of £ 140 a year, and his widow and children are also eligible for contingent pensions under Indian rules

J. H. Seabrooke

There appear to be three possible alternatives,

(1) to allow Lieut Neill to retire from Indian Service with effect from 16 Dec 1900 on the Indian pension of £54 a year, pension contributions paid since that date being refunded to Colonial Funds, and his service from 17 Dec 1900 being allowed to count as qualifying for pension from Northern Nigeria

(2) To allow him to retire now on a pension of £ 140 ; contributions to be levied up to date of retirement, & service subsequent to retirement only to count for pension from Northern Nigeria , or

(3) Lieut Neill to continue in Indian service (qualifying qualifying presumably for higher pension), and contributions to continue to be levied until he retires therefrom.

But alternative No: 1 is objectionable under Military rules, I presume, on the ground that it involves retirement with retrospective effect. In that case he might be given his choice between alternatives Nos 2 & 3 - I do not know whether No: 3 would require the concurrence of the Govt of India.

There are precedents for offering yet another alternative mode of treatment viz to treat the whole of Lieut Neill's service as service for pension from Northern Nigeria; Indian funds to contribute towards such final pension as many sixtieths of his final Indian salary as he may have had completed years of Indian service (Indian service for this purpose would be service actually rendered plus all Nigerian service in respect of which contribution had been paid) See cases of Asst Surg Stewart (Mil: Coll No: 5 File 40 & Capt Mc Cashill, Coll 323 File 41) But it seems improbable that Lt Neill wd accept this arrangement, by which he wd forfeit a pension of £140 actually earned by himself, besides family pensions -

I am directed by Mr Secretary Lyttelton to request you to inform Mr Secretary Brodrick that he would be glad if the services of Mr Neil, who was lent by the Government of India to fill the post of chief Storekeeper, or, as it is now called, Chief Transport officer in Northern Nigeria, and who is at present in this country on leave of absence, could be made available for another tour of service in the Protectorate. Mr Brodrick will recollect that in the letter from this Department of the 13th of September, 1900, it was stated that the services of the officer would be required for a period of three years in the first instance which would, in the ordinary course, include two tours of service in Africa and two periods of leave. Mr. Neil left India on the 22nd of December, 1900, but owing to his long illness when last home on leave, his recent tour of service did not end until some months after the period of three years had elapsed. In the circumstances, Mr Lyttelton would be glad to learn whether Mr Brodrick will be willing to extend the period for which

Sir,

With reference to your letter M.4518 of the 24th of April 1901 and earlier correspondence relative to the engagement of Lieutenant M. Neill as Chief Storekeeper in Northern Nigeria, I am directed by Mr. Secretary Chamberlain to state, for the information of Lord George Hamilton, that Lieutenant Neill was invalided home from West Africa in January last. From the report of the Medical Adviser of this Department it appears to be uncertain when he will be fit to resume duty in Northern Nigeria, and the High Commissioner of the Protectorate, who has been consulted in the matter, though he states that he would much regret to lose Lieutenant Neill, prefers that he should return to India, and that another officer should be appointed in his place, as a Chief Storekeeper is urgently required in the Protectorate.

2. In these circumstances I am to enquire whether there would be any objection to arrangements being made for Lieutenant Neill's return, as soon as possible, to the Indian establishment, and I am to ask for a reply at your earliest convenience.

21st March, 1901.

Sir,

I am directed by Mr.Secretary Chamberlain to acknowledge the receipt of your letter (M.1731) of the 14th of February, relating to the payment of the cost of the passages of Honorary Lieutenant M.Neill and his family to England, and to request that you will call the attention of Lord George Hamilton to the fact that in the Conditions of Service attached to civil appointments in Northern Nigeria, a copy of which was transmitted to you in the letter from this Department of the 13th September last, in which Lieutenant Neill's service were asked for, it is stated that "A free passage to West Africa will also be allowed on first appointment to all officers whose salaries do not exceed £600 per annum on their signing the usual agreement" &c. (paragraph 13.). Nothing was said about the passages of Lieutenant Neill's wife and family, and it was indeed pointed out that Northern Nigeria was not a place to which a married man could take his family.

Sir,

I am directed by Mr Secretary Chamberlain to state, for the information of the Secretary of State for India, that an officer is urgently required for appointment as Chief Storekeeper in the Store and Issue Department of Northern Nigeria.

The pay attached to the post is at the rate of £500 a year, with duty pay at the rate of £96 a year, and a local allowance at the rate of 5/- a day. The officer's services would be required for a period of three years in the first instance (which would in the ordinary course include two tours of service in Africa and two periods of leave), and the appointment would be held on the conditions of service fixed for civil servants, a copy of which is enclosed.

African West 602.
April 1900.

The duties of the post are arduous, and demand a varied experience. They include the receipt of very large quantities of stores of every kind from England, such as provisions, warlike stores, building materials, machinery, and clothing; the management of the stores when received, and their distribution to various departments; the working of Government canteens large enough to supply with food about 300 Europeans

The Under Secretary of State,
India Office.

Europeans, including both the military and civil officers of the Protectorate, the purchase of supplies locally from the natives, and the engagement and paying of carriers. It should also be understood by the officer that the conditions of life in Northern Nigeria are rough, and in particular that it is not a country to which a married man could take his wife. The Protectorate was only taken over by Her Majesty's Government on the 1st of January this year, and the administration has been organized on a simple scale.

Honorary Lieutenant M.Neill, of the Bengal Commissariat and Transport Department, has been recommended to Mr Chamberlain as being a suitable officer for this appointment; and if this recommendation is supported by the Government of India, and if his services can be spared, I am to request that he may be asked whether he is willing to accept the appointment. In the event of his declining it, Mr Chamberlain would be glad to know whether any other suitable civilian or military commissioned officer in the Indian Service would be willing to accept it.

Mr Chamberlain presumes that it will be necessary to refer this matter to the Government of India by post; but he would be obliged if the reply could be sent by telegraph.

I am to add that if it is considered necessary that the pension and other contributions of the office should be paid from the funds of the Protectorate, Mr Chamberlain will be prepared to ask the Lords

Commissioners

Commissioners of the Treasury to sanction this being done.

I am,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

R. L. Antrobus.

NORTHERN NIGERIA.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SERVICE FOR CIVIL SERVANTS.

1. On the 1st of January, 1900, the southern portion of the territories previously under the control of the Royal Niger Company was incorporated into the Niger Coast Protectorate, to which the name of "Southern Nigeria" was then given, and the northern portion was constituted into a separate Protectorate, with a High Commissioner and a Staff of Civil Officers, under the name of "Northern Nigeria."

2. The employment of Officers in the Civil Service of Northern Nigeria is under the Protectorate Government; their emoluments are paid solely from the funds of the Protectorate; and the Colonial Regulations in force for the time being, which are published in the annual "Colonial Office List," are applied to them, subject to such alterations to meet the special circumstances of the Protectorate as may from time to time be made by the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

3. Officers who have not previously held a pensionable appointment in the service of the Crown, either in the United Kingdom or in a Colony or Protectorate, will hold their appointments in Northern Nigeria in the first instance on probation for three years. In such cases, if it is established to the satisfaction of the High Commissioner, within three years from the date of an Officer's arrival in the Protectorate, that the Officer is not qualified for efficient service there, the High Commissioner will have full power, subject to the confirmation of the Secretary of State, to cancel his appointment at any time within the probationary period, without giving him any further compensation than a passage back to England, which will be granted only if the High Commissioner is satisfied that he has, by his good conduct, deserved it.

4. The Colonial Regulations (Nos. 81 to 96) specify the proceedings which are taken in a Colony when the Governor deems it necessary to suspend the holder of a permanent appointment with a view to his removal from the service; but it must be understood that all appointments in a Colony or Protectorate are held subject to the pleasure of the Crown, and that the pleasure of the Crown that an Officer should no longer hold an appointment may be signified through the Secretary of State, in which case no special formalities are required.

5. It must also be understood that the holder of any office may be required to discharge temporarily any duties upon which the High Commissioner may think it desirable to employ him, and that it will be within the High Commissioner's discretion to station him wherever the High Commissioner may consider that his presence will be most useful.

6. Officers may be required to give security, in such amounts and in such manner as the High Commissioner may direct, in respect of the pecuniary responsibility, if any, attaching to their employment.

7. Permanent houses have not yet been built in Northern Nigeria for the accommodation of Government Officers, who will at first have to live in temporary wooden houses sent out from this country; and, in view of the inconvenience to which they will thus be exposed, and of the comparatively high cost of living under the existing conditions in Northern Nigeria, a "local allowance" of 5*s*. a day will for the present be paid to Officers during their residence in the Protectorate, but this arrangement will be subject to revision when the present conditions in these respects are improved and Officers are provided with permanent quarters.

8. A duty allowance is attached to some of the higher offices. This allowance is payable to the holder of the office only while he is actually performing his duties, and during his absence or incapacity it is paid to the Officer for the time being performing the duties of the office ; but in all cases the payment of duty allowance is at the discretion of the High Commissioner.

9. European Officers (that is to say, Officers who were not themselves born in West Africa and neither of whose parents was born there) will, subject to the necessities of the service, be granted leave of absence, on full pay, for four months and ten days, plus the time necessarily taken on the journeys between Northern Nigeria and the United Kingdom, after completing a tour of twelve consecutive months of residential service in Northern Nigeria ; and, if specially detained by direction of the High Commissioner on public grounds after the completion of a tour of service, they may be granted ten days' leave on full pay for each completed calendar month during which they may have been detained, but no additional leave will be granted in respect of any fraction of a month.

10. This leave may be extended, on a medical certificate, with half pay for a period not exceeding three months, and without pay for a further period of not more than three months. Any extension, however short, which may be granted on any other ground than that of ill-health must be without salary.

11. Residential service will be reckoned to begin on the day on which an Officer arrives in Northern Nigeria, and to end on the day preceding that on which he leaves Northern Nigeria for England.

12. Officers invalided before completing a tour of residential service may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, be allowed sick leave with full pay for ten days in respect of each completed calendar month, plus the time necessarily taken on the journeys between Northern Nigeria and the United Kingdom, and such further leave with half pay as will enable them to spend five months in all in the United Kingdom. They may also be granted leave without pay for a further period of not more than three months before being called upon to resign.

13. Free passages home and out again will be allowed to all Officers under the rank of High Commissioner who may be granted leave of absence under the preceding regulations. A free passage to West Africa will also be allowed on first appointment to all Officers whose salaries do not exceed £600 per annum on their signing the usual agreement with the Crown Agents for the Colonies, by which they will be bound to repay the cost of the passage in the event of their relinquishing the appointment within three years of their arrival in Northern Nigeria for any other reason than mental or physical infirmity. Officers for whom first class passages are provided will not be allowed any travelling expenses in England.

14. If invalided out of the Protectorate, but not to the United Kingdom, an Officer may either draw full salary and pay all his own expenses, or draw half salary and have the cost of his passages paid by the Government, as the High Commissioner may decide ; and in such cases (that is to say, if the Officer does not visit the United Kingdom) he will not be required on his return to begin a new tour of service, but the two periods of service will be regarded as consecutive residential service.

15. Officers desiring leave on the ground of "urgent private affairs" before completing a tour of service may, if specially recommended by the High Commissioner, be allowed leave without salary, or, if they have completed six months of residential service, leave on half salary, at the discretion of the Secretary of State ; but such leave must in no case exceed four months from the date of leaving Northern Nigeria to the date of returning there.

16. An Officer returning to Northern Nigeria will be required to embark by the first steamer leaving England after the date on which his leave of absence in the United Kingdom expires, and will be allowed salary at the rate which he is then drawing for the days which intervene between the expiration of his leave and the departure of the steamer.

17. An Officer on first appointment is entitled to half salary from the date of his embarkation in this country, and to full salary from the date of his arrival in Northern Nigeria. In the event of his appointment being cancelled, he will not be entitled to any leave of absence or pay after the date of the letter by which the cancellation is notified to him, unless the High Commissioner, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, shall grant it on special grounds.

18. Officers on leave of absence are liable to be employed in the United Kingdom without extra remuneration, if the High Commissioner or the Secretary of State should think it desirable in the interests of the public service.

19. Medical officers will not be entitled to engage in private practice, and any special permission which they may receive locally to do so will be subject to revocation at any time by the High Commissioner.

20. If an officer wishes any portion of his salary to be paid to his agents or relatives in the United Kingdom, arrangements for this purpose should be made with the Crown Agents for the Colonies, Downing Street, S.W., by whom the payments in this country are made. The officer should inform the Crown Agents what portion of his salary he wishes to be so paid, and to whom payment is to be made; and he should, before his departure, furnish his nominee with a Power of Attorney, which should be sent to the Crown Agents for registration. The balance of salary, and all allowances as distinct from salary, will be issued in Africa.

21. It is proposed that pensions and gratuities on retirement from the service should be granted in accordance with the usual practice, but the regulations to be applied in the case of Northern Nigeria have not yet been settled.
